Farmer Resigns As Guard Captain At Prison Farm

More personnel changes have been announced at the Glades State Prison Farm this week by interim superintendent R. O. Grambling, following the promise of wide-sweeping changes in the farm by R. O. Oliver, state director of corrective institutions.

The resignation of M. F. Farmer, captain of the guards, was accepted this week following Farmer's written request for relief from his duties. He has been captain of the guards for 17 months. The post pays $4,800 annually.

The August 19 letter said: "It is requested that you accept this as my resignation from the position of captain of the guards. I would appreciate the relief becoming effective as of August 19, 1957 but would request immediate relief from active duty."

Farmer said the farm could expect him to vacate the state-owned house he occupies by August 26. He has been an employee of the prison farm since October of 1950. Prior to that he was employed by the U. S. Sugar Corporation for five years.

Farmer said Wednesday that he planned to open a grocery on 5th St. in Belle Glade within about 30 days.

Grambling said he didn't really expect the resignation. "We asked Farmer what the duties of the captain of the guard were and why he hadn't been doing them," the superintendent said.

Farmer then replied that he would rather resign. "It looked to me like they were looking for a man who was not doing what I was supposed to do," Farmer said.

No captain of the guards has been named. Leonard Hamm, lieutenant of the guard, is currently with the local farm with Ivan Creel, state personnel training officer for the division. In reaction, who has been instituting new guard routines.

The personnel at the farm have been working hard to gain the confidence of the prisoners, Grambling said. Tuesday night was the first night in which the prisoners ate with knives, forks and spoons. Heretofore the prisoners ate with a solitary spoon which they were issued when they entered the prison system. This is part of a state-wide change at all prisons.

Individual drinking facilities will also be available soon at the farm.

Butz, Dean of the Agricultural Division, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana, and former assistant Secretary of Agriculture will be the keynote speaker at the 14th Annual Convention of the Florida Fruit & Vegetable Association at Miami Beach, on October 9, according to announcement by Roy Vandergriest, Jr., Pabstoke, General Convention Chairman.

Three Cases Reported By Duncan Involving Glades Area Juveniles

Three incidents involving juveniles were reported this week by assistant juvenile counselor Gene Duncan, who said he had investigated one case of terrorizing a child, buying liquor for minors and arrested one 12-year-old girl for sexual promiscuity at Osceola Center.

Duncan said neighbors reported that a father and mother were abusing their nine-year-old daughter at Okaloosa Center by beating her, refusing to feed her properly, and in one instance attempted to shoot her.

Deputy sheriff Frank O'Connell arrested a negro woman at Pahokee after Duncan gave marked money to a juvenile and asked the youth to have the negro woman purchase a half-gallon of vodka for him. She was released after being arrested, and the authorities moved in.

The 12-year-old Belle Glade girl has been placed in detention at the county children's home awaiting a hearing, Duncan said.

Although I am not a boating enthusiast, the bug hasn't bit me and the only way I know how to get on a boat is to carry me to a place where the fish are biting. Anyone who is interested in this can see for himself.

Over 300 boats started the boat-a-cade last year and about 100 boats are expected to start this year. The committee working for the local event hopes to make Belle Glade the main port for the boat-a-cade.

Alcoholic with the council voters face two more problems at the polls: 1) referendum on a sewer system and 2) an act to provide for revision of the city charter to include the city manager-commission form of government.

The ballot asks the question, "Do you favor the installation of a sewer system in the city of Belle Glade?"

The second referendum point is the abolishment of the old city charter and its replacement with a charter which specifically outlines the duties of the city manager as well as all other functions of city government.

Previously, the charter did not specifically outline the city manager's position in the government.

Heart Committee Plans Meeting

"With Heart Disease causing more deaths per year than the next five diseases combined, is any wonder that the Heart Committee of Belle Glade is developing a program for Thursday evening, September 26th?"

Henry Eilers will be making his bid for a second term on the council while Jesse Barnes, the only other candidate to qualify to date is making his initial bid.

Ray Sullivan's council term is also on the block this year and he has publicly stated that he would qualify.

Death Of Tatum Youth In Crash Stirs Drag Racing Investigation

The death of 15-year-old Leeland Tatum in an automobile crash on Duda Rd. and SR 80 late Saturday caused an investigation of possible drag racing on Duda Rd. and brought drag racing firmly into the public eye locally.

The coroner's investigation by FHP Trooper Danny Jackman ruled out drag racing as the cause of the accident which took Tatum's life.

Rewards totaling $550 have been posted for anyone who can prove that the auto in which Tatum was killed was drag racing at the time of the crash by W. E. Tatum, grandfather of the deceased, and David Anderson, son, president of the Red Riders, a local group devoted to drag racing, and owner of the car which crashed into the public eye locally.

The deceased, and his high north on Duda Rd. at a high rate of speed and failed to stop for the intersection of SR 80. The car, which was a 1956 Ford, crashed into the bridge abutment knocking loose a six-foot length of reinforced concrete wall. The car escaped from the canal, however, Tatum, a passenger, was not recovered from the canal until a boat crew scoured in locating his body with hooks.

Jackman said Lotsch admitted that he was driving the car "about 70" before the crash. The trooper went on to say that he reasoned that Kotch was unfamiliar with the road and that even though he was told by (Continued on Page Eight)

6 Million Payin' Guests

We have two kinds of guests at our house... Plain company and payin' guests. We rent out our spare room...

Lots of these people are available, like to enjoy a glass of beer and they leave quite a bit of tax money on that one item collected over 13 million dollars in taxes on beer and ale. All this up to pretty good payin' guests, I say.

Milton Clinard And Marilyn Berry Take Marriage Vows Sun. Afternoon

The marriage of Miss Marilyn Berry of Delray Beach, to Milton Thomas Clinard of Belle Glade, was solemnized Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church of Boynton Beach.

The Reverend Fred Sliger performed the double ring ceremony among sunburst arrangements of white gladioli and palms.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, H. S. Berry, wore a long sleeved gown of champagne lace. The sash and train were embroidered and adorned with seed pearls and sequins.

The bouffant skirt, with scalloped lace bodice and pleated tulle flounce, flowed into a cathedral train. Her elbow length veil of nylon illusion, composed in part of her grandmother's veil, was attached to a lace and tulle tiara trimmed with seed pearls and sequins.

Her only accessory was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of white orchids, feathery carnations and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Julie Robinson of Boynton Beach, wore a yellow chiffon, waist length gown with contrasting gold drape at the neckline, falling in folds to the hem in the back. She carried an arrangement of blue and white roses and pumpkins and wore a yellow parasol.

Bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Hughes of Boynton Beach, Miss Donna Zimmer, cousin of the bride from Stuart, Kathy Berry, cousin of the bride from Fairview Park, Ohio, and Mrs. Carol Schwarz, an aunt of the bride from Stuart. They wore blue chiffon gowns styled as the maid of honor's, with contrasting blue drape, and blue picture hats. They carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies and pink lilies.

Miss Sliger, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was white dotted with swiss over pink taffeta. She wore a white lace hat and carried a basket of white rose petals.

Mr. Clinard's best man was his brother, Ray Clinard. Ushers were Dean Conington, Alvin Garrett, and Jack Wilcher of Belle Glade, and Eldon Schwarz, uncle of the bride, of Stuart. Rick and Jim Schwarz, cousins of the bride.

Nuptial music was provided by Miss Evelyn Stuart, organist, and Miss Barbara Green, who sang "Always," "O Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother chose a frock of blue sheath lace over taffeta and blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. W. E. Clinard of Bean City, wore a dress of charcoal and white with pink accessories and pink carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with Miss Susan Berry of Fairview Park, Ohio, and Mrs. William Zimmer of Stuart, assisting in the serving. Mrs. Walter G. Berry, Jr., of Fairview Park, Ohio, kept the bride's hostess.

Yellow and white gladioli and a three tiered wedding cake, topped with a figurine bride and groom decorated the bride's table.

For traveling, Mrs. Clinard wore a yellow voile dress with white accessories. After a wedding trip to points of interest in Florida, the couple will be at home in the Scarborough apartment on Ave. A, in Belle Glade.

Mrs. Clinard was graduated from Seaside High School in June 1957, and Mr. Clinard is a graduate of the local high school with the class of '54.

Sports Beat

By George S. McKay
When the dust settles on Lake Shore's Athletic Field Monday evening, August 26th, Coach McCoy will have had his first look at the nucleus of his '57-58 squad. This year the "Bobcats" will have Harold Richardson, former Edward Waters College coach, as their backfield mentor. Things are looking up at Lake Shore after a dismal 2-7 record for last year. Coach McCoy's optimism was quite apparent despite the return of only 12 lettermen and obvious weaknesses at QB, Center, and Fullback positions. Faced with a serious morale problem, Coach has worked out a concrete plan to offset this. The Bobcats will face five major opponents this year. I believe this team will be a banner year for the "Cats" and will herald their initial bid for recognition as a football power. — Coach Pompey of the Carver High Eagles of Delray Beach will have to rebuild his team in the Center of the line and the Backfield. Inexpensive will plague him at Tackle, Center, Quarterback, and Fullback. The Eagles have had but one losing season in the past ten years under Coach Pompey. The Carver High Lake Shore game should be a dilly. . . . The question being bintered around in boxing circles is "CAB BASILIO BELLE THE CAT?", namely, namely Ray Robinson. Some would have you believe that the youthful, hard hitting Basilio will put Robby away in short order. The old boy is long in experience and punching power so don't sell him short. Should Dame Fortune decree that Robby succumb to the explosive fists of Basilio, then we will have witnessed the defeat of a "ronny" who has trod the Championship trail thrice over and who will live in the hearts of the sporting genre for years to come. — Speaking of Champions, Wimbledon Champ Althea Gibson is presently confronted with an accusation which will test her true mettle as a Champion. The object of severe criticism by the Negro Press, she stands accused of snubbing them in her moment of triumph. I am radical enough to believe that her accomplishments, while overshadowing any minor faults that she may have, make her a Champion. I think she will reign for the next three years. — Mack.

Charles "Bim Bam" Wadley, a negro gambler whose operations were centered at "The Club" of Belle Glade, was sentenced to six months in county jail for possession of six boxes or bolts of tickets.

Wadley was also given another six months or a $500 fine for selling the tickets. He was convicted by a six-man jury last Wednesday.

"Bim Bam" came by that curious nickname reportedly for his dice-throwing ability. He was not represented by an attorney. He was prosecuted by County Solicitor Charles Nugent.

Lake Shore School Inaugurates D.C.T. Training Program

Curriculum at Lake Shore High School has been stepped up to include a Diversified Cooperative Training Program and course in Masonry, beginning with the 1957-58 school term. An interview with Principal Charles McCurdy revealed that these courses resulted from an extensive survey, conducted to determine the number of available job opportunities and job training agencies in the community. The establishment of these courses offers a partial answer to the problem of how to deal with the lagged learning, dropouts, and trade or business courses students.

The courses are offered on the 11th and 12th Grade levels, thereby enabling the students to get actual job training along the related courses. The student earns enough credit to graduate with his class while using the community as a laboratory in all lines of endeavor. Participation in these newly established trade courses develops useful skills, charges the student with definite responsibilities, and helplessly serves to rehabilitate many students.

Mr. McCurdy also announced the appointment of nine new teachers as a laboratory in the Lake Shore High School Division:

Mrs. E. C. Edwards — Mathematics; Mrs. E. C. Grear, Band and General Music; Mrs. M. S. Harris, Spanish and English; Mrs. S. C. Miller, Social Studies; Mrs. S. Richardson, Social Studies; Mrs. S. Stebbins, English; Miss L. M. Ward, Librarian; Mr. R. Washington, Masonry; Mr. C. Williams, D.C.T. Coordinator.

JOB & WORKER
ing of jobs and money. Rowing is now a lost art. Better highways that make the chore of getting the boat to the water that may be 30 or 40 or even a hundred miles are no task at all. Continuous development of artificial lakes by the government, these lakes are scattered all over the United States. More leisure time on the part of most everyone caused by the shortening of the work week makes it possible for the family as a group to spend more time together in the open.

The Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce is spear-heading a drive to organize all boat owners of the community into an organization of boatmen. The objects of this organization are to expand and improve boat facilities on city owned property at the port of Belle Glade. To provide recreational facilities for Glades residents on LAKE OKEECHOBEE. To attract boatmen from all over Florida to use this port as a home base of operation, thus benefiting merchants and business men of this city. To assist other organizations in attracting new residents to build new homes, live, and work in Belle Glade. To inaugurate a water safety educational program sponsored by the club in cooperation with the United States Coast Guard.

I can also see the very real possibility of attracting a boat manufacturing firm as a result of improved facilities that will be developed in our city in the heart of the Glades. It naturally follows that this will mean more and better jobs for Belle Glade residents as the city grows commercially, industrially and agriculturally.

Jobs . . . There are good jobs openings for young men between the ages of 21 and 35 with a high school education. All jobs are entry jobs with salaries starting at around $250 per month. These jobs offer an unlimited future for the right young man that will apply himself to the job that he undertakes. We at the Florida State Employment Service, 41 South East Avenue D, will be very glad for you to come in and let us give you the full information regarding these openings.

Celery Disease Found Here Can Be Controlled

Officials at Gainesville issued a reminder this week that a new disease of celery discovered in the seedbed of a commercial planter near Belle Glade last October by Dr. R. S. Cox, plant pathologist, is easily controlled now.

Dr. Cox, local experiment station specialist, learned that the disease can be controlled with a combination of parate and thylate.

He described the disease as beginning as small, reddish-brown spots which gradually enlarge in an irregular outline, though hardly visible to the naked eye.

Under severe infection, Dr. Cox said, the whole seedbed turns a yellowish color, readily discernible from a distance.

Farm Bureau Meeting Today At Clewiston

Today is the day for the last of five area Farm Bureau meetings according to T. K. McClane, Jr., executive vice-president of the organization.

The first four meetings were held in Deltona, Spring, Tallahassee, Gainesville and Bartow. Today's meeting will be held at the Clewiston Inn beginning at 9:30 a. m. and will be concluded at 3 p. m. McClane said. Luncheon will be from 12 until 1:15.
